SANTO STEFANO DI QUISQUINA - In the deep hilly hinterland of Agrigento, many animals are raised, people wisely take care of the land, but in fact they take care of themselves. Here lives Lorenzo Reina, a shepherd and sculptor from another time. On several hectares of land belonging to his family for generations, he created the "Theatre of Andromeda" which symbolically contains 108 stone seats, the number of stars that make up the Andromeda constellation, thus projecting the magnificent nightly reflection of that breathtaking creation.

GIBELLINA - An en plein air museum with about 60 installations scattered throughout the city by the great Cretto di Burri, Carla Accardi, Mimmo Paladino, Mimmo Rotella, Emilio Isgrò, Turi Simeti, etc. Also, you can choose other tours like the Urban Safari - street art tour in Palermo, the Street art silos tour in Catania and the Art Fiumara of Tusa
